

Riverview Held a Coloring Contest for Surrounding Regions

Riverview recently hosted a coloring contest open to residents of the communities surrounding its sites and farms. The contest invited participants of all ages to submit their artwork for a chance to win a prize.

The response from the community was met with enthusiasm, and Riverview was pleased to recognize ten winners, each of whom received a prize for their participation.

The coloring contest reflects Riverview's ongoing commitment to engaging with and giving back to the communities where its employees live and work. As a company rooted in its local regions, Riverview values opportunities to connect with neighbors and celebrate the creativity of the community.

Riverview extends its congratulations to all of the winners and its thanks to everyone who took part in the contest. The company looks forward to continuing to build on its relationships with the surrounding community through future events and initiatives

About Riverview

Rooted in providing opportunities for the next generation, Riverview's story began as a crop and beef farm in 1939 and began using the name "Riverview" in the 1970s. Riverview opened its first dairy farm in 1995.

Today, Riverview LLP has grown into a diversified agribusiness that is family and employee owned. Riverview strives to provide a respectful, ethical work environment, ensure animal health and comfort, enhance the productivity of the land, and add value to its communities.
